JOB OUTLOOK:
Continued Improvement!

The job market for 2006 – 2007 graduates continued to be good, with an increasing number of employers seeking UNLV students and alumni over the previous year. Graduates reporting career-related current employment status within 3 months of graduation revealed good results for all career interests and college majors (see the “Career, Salary Offers & Job Status of Respondents by College” chart below).

62% of respondents felt their degree helped them obtain career employment, enhance their status in their position, and/or made them eligible for promotion. 88% felt their UNLV education prepared them for their chosen profession, and 74% of our 2006-2007 graduate respondents reported they are currently employed or have accepted a job offer. In addition, 24% of respondents were either enrolled in graduate/professional school or awaiting acceptance.

Responding students identified our career handbook, “Backpacks to Briefcases”, as the number one Career Services’ service or program they used, followed by our annual Career Day, and the Career Services website. We recommend students/alumni utilize all available tools in their job searches, including the online web-based job and internship postings, Resume Books, and On-Campus Recruiting which are part of UNLV CareerLink, our online recruiting management system available to all students and graduates who are members of the UNLV Alumni Association. In addition to Career Day which is for all majors and industries, we hosted three other targeted career fairs this last year which had very good turnouts by students/alumni and employers.
