Primary Reason for Pursuing a Degree

CAREER EXPERIENCE CAN MAKE A DIFFERENCE!

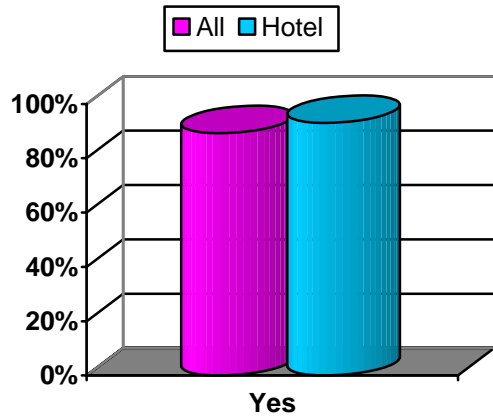

For College of Hotel Administration graduates, 84% of respondents indicated they worked while attending school, about the average for all students (86%). Of those who did work, 50% characterized their work as primarily full-time, below the average of 55%.

Of the Hotel Administration graduates who reported working while in school, 89% said their pre-graduation employment was related to their field of study, way above the average of 65% and the highest for all colleges. Students with career-related experience develop marketable skills and networks of employer contacts leading to greater success in their career searches upon graduation.

JOB OUTLOOK: Continued Improvement!

The job market for 2007 – 2008 graduates continued to be good, with an increased number of employer visits seeking UNLV students and alumni over the previous year. Overall On-Campus Recruiting (OCR) interview opportunities increased slightly over last year. Of OCR employers screening for majors, 54% targeted Hotel Administration majors (see Employer Activities Report 2007-2008 on our website under “Reports”), and 20% of Hotel Administration survey respondents reported receiving offers through OCR. Hotel majors reported a 64% employment rate (average 70%), and 86% career-related employment (average 69%). In addition, 64% of the respondents who identified themselves as unemployed were not currently seeking employment, of which 9% were actively seeking grad school.

Also of note: 63% of College of Hotel Administration respondents felt their degree helped them obtain their position or get a promotion, compared to the average of 51% for all respondents. Hotel Administration respondents identified our annual Spring Career Day, career handbook, and our Fall career fair as the top tools they utilized from Career Services.

Students are advised to use all available tools in their job searches, including UNLV CareerLink, our online recruiting management system that includes job and internship postings, Resume Books, and On-Campus Recruiting. In addition we host career fairs three times a year, providing great opportunities for networking and researching current and future employment and internship opportunities.
