Part II (to be completed by a Faculty member)

The above named student is applying for the Rebel Internship Program offered by UNLV Career Services. The program requires that students be able to work independently, be sensitive to the needs of others, be academically secure, work well with diverse populations, and be counted on to follow through on tasks to which they may commit themselves. This letter of recommendation will be used to supplement their resume and over letter application to prospective employers.

Notes to Recommendation Writer

- Your recommendation is very important to the student's success.
- You can help this student's application be more competitive by citing specific examples, observations or knowledge that you have of the student's efforts, work ethic and worthiness for consideration.
- Please use this form; you may, however, submit a separate letter of recommendation attached to this form.

To become a Rebel<sup>i</sup> Intern, the student must:

1. be in at least his or her third semester of coursework and/or have completed 30 hours of coursework.
2. have a clear career direction and/or declared major.
3. be classified as an "admitted" student to the University.
4. be in good academic and financial standing with the University with no probationary status.
5. meet with a career counselor, academic advisor, or faculty advisor to complete the Rebel Internship Readiness Quiz.
6. submit a letter of recommendation from a faculty member supporting your application (standardized form available from Career Services).

Please complete this form (typed or work-processed) and return it to UNLV Career Services. You may use the back of this form or an attached sheet if necessary.

Please rate the student on the following qualities:	Poor	Below Average	Average	Above Average	Superior	Not Observed
Communication skills
Ability to follow through
Judgment
